

An aerial photograph showing a road interchange. A multi-lane highway, labeled 'Rt. 611 Bypass', runs diagonally from the top left towards the bottom right. A road labeled 'Rt. 313' runs parallel to the bypass, slightly below it. Another road, labeled 'Easton Rd. (Old 611)', runs parallel to the bypass, slightly above it. The area is densely packed with buildings, parking lots, and green spaces. The labels are in white text with a slight shadow, making them stand out against the background.
